

Free French speaking summer courses at Vidy – Beach, Lausanne

☒ Beginning from July 11th until August 19th 2011, the BLI (Lausanne Office for the integration of the immigrants) proposes free French speaking courses for beginners.

The acquisition of language skills of the host country plays an important role in the process of integration, in particular to get access to the services in the domains of the work, the health or the formation. The language learning is a long-term and beneficial initiative for the daily life.

BLI's French courses are free. They are given without registration from Monday to Friday, from 6 pm to 7:30 pm until August 19th 2011. They might be canceled in case of rain. In the doubt, please call the following number: 021/315.72.45.

The plan to find out where the courses are given and the detailed informations are available in 6 languages on the BLI website.

To get more informations, do not hesitate to contact the Lausanne Office for the integration of the immigrants.

Javkhlan TUMURBAATAR

Membre de la rédaction vaudoise de Voix d'Exils

Lausanne Office for the integration of the immigrants (BLI)

Pl .de la Riponne 10 – CP 5032 – CH -1002 Lausanne

T +41 (0)21 315 72 45 – bli@lausanne.ch – www.lausanne.ch/bli